TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1905.

A grass widow is usually no hayseed.

A friend in need is a friend you do not care to see.

Down to start new Zion in Mexico. Men who should look up their pocketbooks.

The water wagon is stopping every day now to let off some of its New Year's passengers.

W. L. Douglas is advertising more liberal than ever since his election. He is looking an early start toward a second term.

The department of commerce and labor is going after the trusts just like it is fearfully afraid that it may not discover something.

A Chicago wrecking firm has paid $5000 for the St. Louis exposition buildings. Chicago always did have a desire to wreck St. Louis.

General Miles was wise in declining that Massachusetts salary in order to hold on to his federal army salary. The latter is harder and lasts longer.

The house of representatives has passed the fortifications appropriation bill. The opponents of huge appropriations were not satisfied strongly enough.

President Diaz is returning to establish a winter retreat in Mexico. Though this was said to remove Mexico and abolish all chance of change.

But Kaiser will never be able to feel that this country is really friendly toward him until our president gives that upward imperial twirl to his mustache.

When the department of commerce and labor gets ready for one on information about the trusts, it should secure Tom Dawson as its hired help.

David Bennett Hill says that most thoroughly disengaged, and good for Mr. Hill's absent, is perfectly astound. He hasn't had an office of any kind in eight years.

Count Cassini says that Russia will fight until she wins. Peter for Russia to win! Spessart's heroic defense of Port Arthur is victory and to go at that.

Perhaps those few West Virginians who offered to make up the $84,000 half for Nan Patterson knew before hand just how the supreme court of New York would be their enemy for them.

Now the claim that Senator Davis has beaten the New York machine. This claim arises from the very unusual nature of what fell to be the machine when he is truly the chauffeur.
